

Table of Contents

Part I	Service Delivery in Fragile Situations: Key Concepts, Findings and Lessons
Part II	Concepts and Dilemmas of State Building in Fragile Situations: From Fragility to Resilience	61

Table of Contents

Executive Summary	11
State fragility	11
The political economy of services	11
How does fragility affect service delivery outcomes?	11
Aiding service delivery: Approaches	12
Challenges	12
Policy implications	13
Tailoring interventions to context	13
Long-term focus on governance and state building	13
Managing transition and hand-back	13

Chapter 1

Introduction	15
---------------------------	----

Chapter 2

Fragility and Services: Key Concepts	17
The fragile state	17
The political economy of services	19
The central role of accountability	20
How does fragility affect service delivery outcomes?	22
The aftermath of violent conflict	24
Reciprocal influence of service delivery and fragility	25

Chapter 3

Taking Action: Approaches, Challenges, Dilemmas	29
Aiding service delivery: Approaches	29
Degrees of cooperation with government	29
Alternative delivery models	30
Implementation options	33
Challenges	34
Sound analysis for choice of sector and approach	34
Building accountable governance	35
Expanding access while confronting limits	37
Dilemmas	39
Whether and how to deal with the state	39
Decentralising: when, how much, to whom	41
Efficiency and sustainability tradeoffs	43

Chapter 4

Policy Implications	47
Tailoring interventions to context	47
Long-term focus on governance and state building	48
Managing transition and hand-back	50
Bibliography	55

Annex

Fragile State Scenarios	59
Declining	59
Situations of stagnation or worsening conditions, where the risk of collapse is increasing	59
Stabilising	60
Situations of emergence from crisis, where the risk of collapse is static or receding	60

Boxes

Box 1. Service delivery in a clientelist setting	20
Box 2. Services and “neutral ground”	26
Box 3. Models of partnership with the state	30
Box 4. Healthcare contracting in Cambodia	31
Box 5. Bundling health services	34
Box 6. Services and accountability through community engagement	37
Box 7. Risks of siding with government	40
Box 8. Community-based approaches and social capital	42
Box 9. Non-state providers in violent contexts	42
Box 10. Building back better	44
Box 11. Planning for hand-back in Sudan	45
Box 12. Post-conflict service sector rebuilding sequence: Healthcare in Timor-Leste	52

Figures

Figure 1. Accountability triangle	21
Figure 2. Service delivery modalities	32
Figure 3. Service sector components subject to fragility	35
Figure 4. Accountability triangle plus donors	36

Tables

Table 1. Service delivery modalities and fragility	33
--	----

Table of Contents

Executive Summary	65
Core considerations	65
Implications for policy and programming	66
Implications for bilateral and multilateral organisation and financing	67
Conclusion	68
 Chapter 1
Rationale, Background and Key Concepts	69
International engagement in fragile states	70
Key terms and concepts	70
What state building is not	71
Putting state building in the context of state formation	72
 Chapter 2
The State, Stability and Fragility	75
Defining fragility	76
Causal factors in state fragility or resilience	77
A dynamic concept of fragility	78
Summing up	80
Pathways to stability and resilience	80
Stability through political process reform	80
Democratisation and hybrid regimes	81
Stability through growth	82
Beyond stability – other OECD goals	82
Summing up	83
 Chapter 3
Implications for Response: Policy	85
The need for political analysis: Assessing the state of the state	85
Priorities, trade-offs and sequencing	85
Influencing legitimacy	86
Regional organisations	87
Response to different facets of fragility	88
Dealing with political division	89
State building in post-war states	90
State building in authoritarian states	92

Chapter 4

Implications for Response: Programming	95
Implications for political processes	95
Implications for governance programming	97
Accountability	99
Decentralisation and centre-periphery relations	99
The rule of law	100
Administrative capacity	101
Implications for programming in key sectors	102
Security	102
Service provision	102
Economic growth	103
Corruption and organised crime	104
Taxation	106

Chapter 5

Organisational & Financial Implications: Recommendations for Bilaterals and Multilaterals	109
Implications for bilaterals: Financing and mode of delivery	109
Risks associated with whole-of-government approaches	109
Engagement with non-OECD actors	110
Aid mechanics: Financing, co-ordination and mode of delivery	111
Implications for multilateral institutions	113
Conclusion	117
Bibliography	119
Further Reading	127

Annex A

A Brief History of State Formation	131
Origins of the contemporary state	131
The contemporary state	134

Annex B

Programming in Key Sectors: Security, Service Delivery, Economic Growth	139
Providing security	139
State capacity and services: Providing welfare services	142
Creating the conditions for growth	144

Boxes

Box 1. Key terms and their usage	71
Box 2. Are all poor states fragile or does poverty cause fragility?	76