

MIDDLE EASTERN LITERATURES

INCORPORATING EDEBIYÂT

Volume 15 Number 3 December 2012

Special Issue: Utopias, Dystopias and Heterotopias:
The Spatiality of Human Experience and Literary Expression

Guest Editor: Wen-Chin Ouyang

Preface	227
The Space Between Here and There: The Prophet's Night Journey as an Allegory of Islamic Ritual Prayer Simon O'Meara	232
The Familiar and the Fantastic in Narratives of Muḥammad's Ascension to the Heavenly Spheres Peter Webb	240
Underworlds and Otherworlds in The Thousand and One Nights Bruce Fudge	257
Heterotopia as a Site of Cross-Cultural Collaboration: Ibrāhīm Al-Dusūqī and Edward Lane Paulo Lemos Horta	273
Changing Perspectives: Utopia and Dystopia in 'Alā' al-Aswānī's Chicago Antonella Ghersetti	286
Utopia and Dystopia in Palestinian Circular Journeys from Ghassān Kanafānī to Contemporary Film Nadia Yaqub	305
Ibrāhīm Al-Muwaylihī's Mir'at Al-Ālam Introduction and Translation Roger Allen	318