

CONTENTS

WORLD LITERATURE TODAY

JULY – AUGUST 2006

VOL. 80, NO. 4

"My mother would listen indulgently and would never pooh-pooh anything he said. But she knew he was dreaming, as my father's dreams were. She got on with the business of the temporal, of working, planning for the day to day. It was their arrangement."—Kwame Dawes, PAGE 33

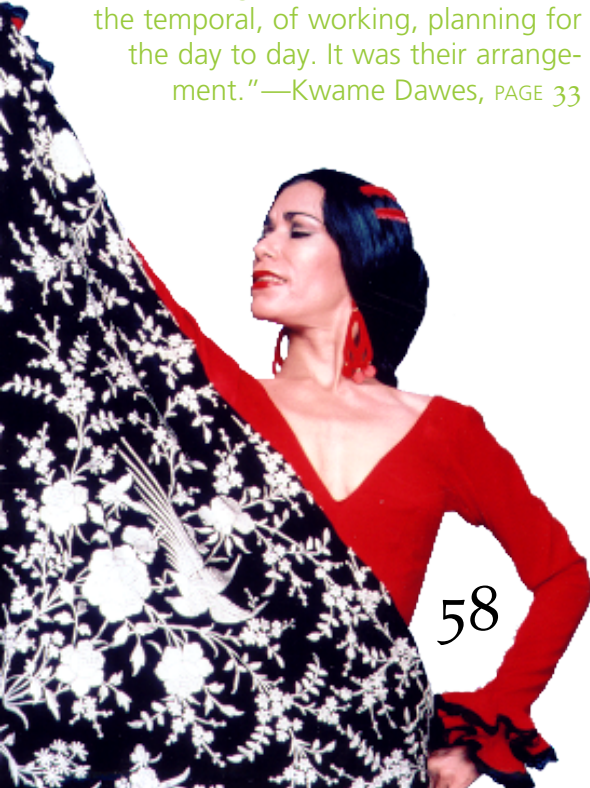

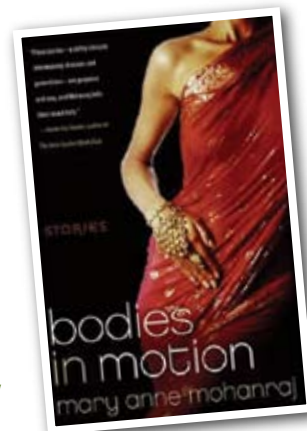

Photo: Jack Mitchell

63
WORLD
LITERATURE
IN REVIEW

13 SPECIAL SECTION
VOICES OF THE MAGHREB
Assia Djebar, an interview with Aïssa Khelladi and Marie Virolle, and North African protest music and poetry

27 POETRY
Li-Young Lee
Kwame Dawes
Boris A. Novak

31 MEMOIR
Kwame Dawes

35 OFF THE AIR
Alan Cheuse reviews
Yiyun Li, Luis Alberto Urrea,
and Kiran Desai

37 TRAVEL
The Bridges of Berlin

6 COVER
Our exclusive interview with Yo-Yo Ma about his musical journeys along the Silk Road
Photograph by Michael O'Neill

41 CURRENTS
Mircea Cărtărescu (Romania)
Boris A. Novak (Slovenia)
The Mit'ki Group (Russia)

58 ARTS & CULTURE
New World Flamenco

IN EVERY ISSUE
3 LETTERS
63 WORLD LITERATURE IN REVIEW
80 OUTPOSTS