A policy-research and network-building programme

The contributions to this IDS Bulletin report on some of the findings from research undertaken for the Social Protection in Asia (SPA) programme. This is a three-year policy-oriented research and network-building programme, funded by the Ford Foundation and the International Development Research Centre (IDRC), with projects and partners in China, Vietnam, Indonesia, India, Pakistan and Bangladesh. This is the second phase of the programme, which was initiated by the Ford Foundation in response to the Asian Financial Crisis of 1997–8.

The SPA programme is managed by the Institute of Development Studies (IDS), Sussex, UK, and the Institute for Human Development (IHD), New Delhi, India.
