

Editor's Introduction

Editor's Commentary: Getting Personal

• ESSAYS Aztlán. vol. 26, n. 2 fall. 2001.

From Chingada to Chingona: La Malinche Redefined or, A Long Line of Hermanas

Rita Cano Alcalá

The Politicization of Chicago Mexican Americans: Naturalization, the Vote, and Perceptions of Discrimination

Melissa R. Michelson and Amalia Pallares

Mexicans and "Business as Usual:" Small Town Politics in Oregon

Robert C. Dash and Robert E. Hawkinson

A Sojourn of Desire, Cuando Lleguemos: Chicano/a Literature, A Historical Reflection

Jesus Rosales

• DOSSIER

Revisioning Applied Social Sciences in Chicana/o Studies

Adela de la Torre

Latina Immigrant Domestic Workers: Pathways for Upgrading Cleaning and Caring Jobs

Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo

Latina/o Studies and the Ethics of Job Training: On the Premises of the Corporate University

Jane Juffer

The "Mexican Problem": Empire, Public Policy, and the Education of Mexican Immigrants, 1880-1930

Gilbert G. Gonzalez

A Telecommunications Policy Agenda for Latinos en la Edad de Información

Jorge Reina Schement

• ARTIST'S COMMUNIQUÉ

Creepcakes Bakery

Camille Rose Garcia

• REVIEWS AND RESPONSES

Sor Juana's Second Dream. By Alicia Gaspar de Alba.

Paul Allaston

The Rigoberta Menchú Controversy. By Arturo Arias.

Catherine Komisaruk

Silencing Our Lady: La respuesta de Alma

Alma Lopez

• CONTRIBUTORS